B U I C K

How to buy a hot Buick.
(A simple matter of exercising your options.)

If your head has ever been turned by a car that says, "Drive me!" all over it, if you've ever wished yourself behind the wheel of a machine with power, looks and reflexes that scream for a twisty road and a long straight stretch, then you're ready for the latest good news from Buick.

The news is that you can build yourself a Buick that fits your expectations right down to the last bit of trim and performance. And you can do it without having to order every little detail. The picky people of Buick, who just live thinking about details, have anticipated your preferences and have put together special Touring Option packages to Buick take your ordering.

Want to lose the chrome and go with the hard, businesslike look of blackout trim? You've got it. Just specify the Exterior Sport Package for your Buick. The package varies depending on the model you order, but basically it delivers the sporty appearance that many performance-minded drivers prefer. Find the car line that interests you in this booklet and check under "Exterior Sport Package" for the exact details.

Want the handling of a specially tuned suspension, too? No problem. Buick has a Touring Option package that will make you happy. It's called the "T" package, and although it varies a bit from car to car, it always includes Dean Touring suspension, a leather-wrapped sport steering wheel that is color-keyed to the interior or 21" special wheels and tires.

Want the extra power that turbo-charging can provide? Order the Turbo Package. Not only will you receive a turbocharged engine, you'll receive other power prop-erties that belong with such a spirited engine. The Turbo Package is not available with all Buick models. Please check the section of this booklet devoted to the car of your choice for availability and details.

Want an interior that surrounds you with a sporty atmosphere? Just say the words - "Interior Sport Package." With details encompassing every thing from the upholstery to the instrumentation, this package gives you customized, sport-designed driving quarters. Not available for all car lines.

Also offered as options, and included in this booklet, are Regal Grand National, LeSabre T Type, Electra T Type and Riviera T Type. Talk about packages! These cars are total sport packages, totally different, and designed with the true enthusiast in mind. Read more about them under their individual car lines later in this booklet.
